Tre tir di Camst e Granarolo a Kharkiv

Granarolo e Camst si sono unite per portare un piccolo aiuto alla popolazione dell'Ucraina, dove oggi scarseggia anche il cibo. Granarolo ha organizzato un convoglio di tre tir per l'Ucraina, attraverso un canale attivato con partner logistici locali. Il carico di prodotti è stato donato insieme a Camst group. Granarolo ha provveduto a far arrivare latte a lunga conservazione, latte per bambini e neonati, pasta e snack, mentre Camst ha inviato prodotti in scatola, biscotti e merende, per un totale di circa 60 tonnellate di prodotti. Il trasporto è stato messo in piedi a tempo di record grazie a contatti sul campo di Granarolo, ed ha già raggiunto le città di Kharkiv e Kiev. «Un esempio di come la partnership tra realtà di paesi diversi possa essere efficace e virtuosa quando gli obiettivi sono comuni», dicono Camst e Granarolo. Si attivano anche altre aziende dall'Emilia-Romagna. «Ringrazio di cuore Chiesi Farmaceutici. La loro donazione rappresenta un altro importantissimo segnale che tutto il sistema economico e il mondo produttivo e del lavoro in Emilia-Romagna sta dando per aiutare chi fugge dalla guerra», dice il presidente della Regione, Stefano Bonaccini, a seguito della cospicua donazione di Chiesi Farmaceutici nell'ambito della raccolta fondi regionale a favore dell'assistenza ai profughi ucraini, che ha già superato i due milioni di euro. A Ravenna, altro esempio, Confartigianato ha aperto in via straordinaria gli uffici in città, a Faenza, Lugo, Cervia, Russi, Bagnacavallo e Alfonsine il sabato mattina, raccogliendo 300 scatoloni di aiuti in beni di prima necessità.
